DETAILED ACTION

Applicant's arguments with respect to claim 1-10 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 5, and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Glenn (6,342,406).

As to claim 5, Glenn et al disclose (see fig. 3) a semiconductor image sense chip (102) having multiple bumps (112A, 112B) formed on the top face of the semiconductor image sense chip (102) and a transparent layer (140A), the transparent layer (140A) having a thickness being equal to that of each of the bumps (112A, 112B) for permitting light to pass through. Glenn et al fail to explicitly teach continuously contiguous. Glenn et al does disclose the transparent layer (104A) being in physical contact or touching along one side of the semiconductor image sense chip that corresponds to a continuously contiguous arrangement, (see column 7, lines 40-49). It would have been obvious for one ordinary skill in the art to modify Glenn et al to place the transparent layer in a continuously contiguous arrangement corresponding to the image sense chip to improve the penetration of light through the transparent layer and onto the active area of the image sensor chip.

As to claim 6, Glenn et al disclose a medium (140A) i.e. transparent encapsulant including multiple penetration holes (118C, 118D), each penetration hole (118C, 118D) aligning with a corresponding one of the multiple bumps (112A, 112B) such that each bump (112A, 112B) extends to a top face of the transparent glass plate (140A), (see figure 3, column 2, lines 33-44, column 8, lines 1-6).

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 7-10 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

The prior art fails to teach either singly or in combination a transparent glass plate having a periphery covered by a shelter to prevent the light from laterally penetrating into the chip scale package structure and a transparent layer being made from a gelatinous liquefied material.

Claims 1-4 allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The prior art fails to either singly or in combination teach a liquefied gelatinous material covering the top face of the semiconductor image sensor chip and forming a transparent layer on the top face of the semiconductor image sensor chip after drying up.

Conclusion

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
